Privacy Policy

Last Updated: August 6, 2023

We value your privacy and strive to provide maximum protection for your personal data. This Privacy Policy outlines the types of data we collect, how we use it, and how we ensure its security. Please review these provisions to understand how we process and safeguard your personal information.

Data Collection and Usage

We collect and store certain data that may be associated with your identity, such as unique identifiers of your computer (e.g., ssid or appleid), IP address, and information about your interactions with our scripts (e.g., the number of script launches, clicks on specific interface elements). This data is collected solely for the purpose of licensing our scripts and for internal analytics to enhance the quality and functionality of our products.

Data Protection

We take all necessary measures to protect your personal data from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. Your data is stored on secure servers, and access to this data is strictly controlled. We also educate our employees and partners on compliance with privacy and data security principles.

Data Transmission

Your personal data will not be disclosed to third parties without your consent, except as required by law.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be published on this page, and where possible, we will also notify you of these changes via email or other convenient methods.

Consent

By using our scripts, you express your consent to the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to these terms, please do not use our scripts.
